ASCL's Routes into Teaching Map

Prerequisites Route information The Curriculum Assessment and Qualification Awarded Based in the lead school in the SCITT while Assessed through classroom observations, SCITT http://tinyurl.com/k2wblyv completing teaching practices at other schools. e-portfolios and written assignments (generally Led by a network of schools that have been given two but may differ). powers to run their own training independently. Training led by experienced practising teachers. Course generally lasts a year. Result in QTS. Many also award a PGCE and some Degree give credits towards a Masters. (check minimum with providers) School led only Minimum of two school placements – some School Direct (Unsalaried) teaching schools also include a bespoke school Evidence of good developmental classroom http://tinyurl.com/lx8fw46 C grade at GCSE placement and training depending on trainee teaching. (or higher, check with individual Designed by a group of schools in partnership providers) in: with a university or SCITT with the schools A school based study. English themselves recruiting. Training on the job, from practitioners in schools Maths and academics at the university. Critical reflective journal kept throughout the year. Generally lasts a year. Science (To teach Primary or Keys Stages 2 or 3) Gradual build of teaching time from around 20 per All courses result in QTS, many will also award a School Direct (Salaried) cent to around 80 per cent. PGCE and some include credits towards a Masters. School experience (normally a http://tinyurl.com/mxuxpy8 minimum of ten days but varies Weekly mentoring with school based subject QTS and PGCE is awarded after the first year, there between providers) Earn a salary while training and school covers the leader (mentors trained by the school). is the option to complete a two year Masters beginning in the second year. cost of achieving QTS. Passed Professional Skills Tests in Six week summer training before starting in the School and literacy and numeracy For PGCE and QTS – File of evidence of progress HE led Teach First http://tinyurl.com/mgswvba compromising four written assignments, a weekly Some providers may want more Earn while you train and work in a challenging Support from HE and school mentor. journal of written reflections, teaching observations eg a letter of recommendation school in a low-income community. and a final external assessment. from a serving headteacher Follow a two year leadership development Minimum 2.1 degree. Two year course. programme combining teacher training with For Masters – 30 credit university-taught module additional business skills, mentoring and and 60 credit dissertation report. Troops to Teachers http://tinyurl.com/ol8pxau networking. For Service Leavers in the two years before or the Graduates will follow the curriculum of their route two years after leaving the Armed Forces. Graduates – follow route taken (SD or university (SD or university led) and will be awarded the led) with additional bespoke training. qualifications designated by their route. With a degree – one year course through SD Unsalaried, Salaried or university led PGCE. Non-graduates – training in a school four days a Non-Graduates – assessment in the classroom and Without a degree - two year, school-based, week and university training one day a week. through written university work. Will gain a degree salaried teacher training programme. and QTS. Two week summer programme followed by two University led Researchers in Schools school placements and training delivered by a Programme of observations, classroom teaching, local 'outstanding' teaching school. bespoke training and opportunities to conduct http://tinyurl.com/lfxm4rt and disseminate research. For researchers who have completed or are 20 per cent of time allocated to own academic finishing their doctorate. Trainees will achieve OTS. pursuits. Two year salaried programme in six regions. Bachelor of Education degree (BEd) – focus on Courses will differ between universities but teaching, learning and related academic principles. assessment will be through a mix of essays, Undergraduate route reports, presentations, projects and teaching. http://tinyurl.com/kvmaf7d Bachelor of Arts (BA) or Science (BSc) degree with Study for a degree and teacher training at the QTS – focus on specialist knowledge in chosen Awarded degree and QTS. same time. Minimum C at GCSE in English and subject with focus on skills to pass that knowledge maths plus science for primary or Key Stage 3 and Assessed through classroom observations, two A levels (check with individual universities). coursework and critical journals. Both include placements in schools and the Full time 3-4 years, part time 4-6 years. curriculum will involve workshops, lectures, field Awarded PGCE and some universities will offer trips and school placements. credits towards a Masters. Postgraduate route (PGCE) http://tinyurl.com/ofl2jjz Minimum of 24 weeks in schools. If you already have a degree, one year course at a of School and Training at university by academics. university or college with school placements. College Leaders